3. CONSIDERATIONS FOR PREPARATION OF THE PROPOSAL

3.1. Tax Aspects

3.1.1. To the national or foreign proponent authorized to operate in Brazil:

3.1.1.1. The proponent in setting its price must consider all expenses and costs, direct and indirect, including social and labor charges, transportation and insurance, as well as indirect taxes (PIS, COFINS, ICMS, IPI, ISS and CPRB) when applicable, considering the rates in force on the date of the proposal□s presentation, noting that the entry of values on the portal must follow the provisions of item 3.3.2.1.

3.1.1.2. In case the proponent chooses SIMPLES NACIONAL (Integrated System for Payment of Taxes and Contributions), the prices must contemplate the taxation of all taxes collected in this modality according to the table and the classification range and the contribution of CPRB - Social Security Contribution on Gross Revenue - (if any), considering the rates in force on the date of submission of the bids. The proponent shall inform these rates, the table(s) and the classification range(s), which shall be included in the prices presented;

3.1.1.3. Price Review arising from the disqualification of SIMPLES NACIONAL -Integrated System for Payment of Taxes and Contributions - is not applicable, and the company shall be liable for the charges of supplying the materials covered by the contract. Exception shall be made if there is an amendment to the legislation governing the SIMPLES NACIONAL regime;

3.1.1.4. The proponent is solely responsible for the information and tax classification of the product or service. No claim for price increase will be allowed as a result of possible misunderstandings. Proper adjustment must be made when there is an amendment to the relevant tax laws governing the transaction under the contract after the date established for submission of the bid.

3.1.1.5. Regarding ISS, taxation will be in the form of item(s) 7.01 of the List Attached to Complementary Law 116/2003 corresponding to the services object of the contractual instrument, as indicated in Addendum C - Unit Price Spreadsheet (PPU).

3.1.2. To foreign proposers with no authorization to operate in Brazil

3.1.2.1. For the provision of services, the prices shown in the spreadsheet must take into account all taxes and other costs incurred, as well as all existing export incentives, in the supplier□s country of origin, as well as IRRF and ISS withholdings in Brazil , when applicable. The amounts must be posted in the form of the item 3.3.2.1.

3.2. General Aspects

3.2.1. Information such as payment terms and details of the start of services, readjustment and fines are set out in the Contract Draft (Addendum A).

3.2.2. The proposal must be valid for not less than 120 days, counted from the End Date for its presentation.

3.3. Proposal Submission

3.3.1. As a condition for submitting a proposal, the proponent must indicate agreement, by means of a digital “acceptance”, with the terms of the statements made available electronically on the Electronic Portal whose content is reflected in Addendum B - Unified Declaration:

3.3.1.1. The winning proponent must provide in physical or electronically signed form, as a precondition for signing the contractual instrument, the aforementioned unified declaration signed by its Legal Representative(s).

3.3.1.2. Failure to submit statements, as mentioned in item 3.3.1.1 above, or submission of any declaration that does not reflect the truth, shall result in the exclusion of the proponent at any stage of the contracting process or the loss of eligibility to sign the contract, in addition to subjecting the supplier to the same penalties established in item 9 of this document.

3.3.1.3. Micro and small enterprises must declare that are able to take advantage of the unequal treatment established in articles 42 to 49 of Complementary Law 123, of December 14, 2006,and you should note that:

a) Failure to declare this condition at the time of submission of a proposal will only result in the loss of the right to unequal treatment provided for in the Complementary Law 123/06, and subsequent rectification will not be accepted;

b) Proponents who declare themselves to be a micro or small enterprise for the purpose of obtaining the benefits of Complementary Law 123/06, and do not have this condition, or for any reason for failing to be entitled to such benefits and not immediately inform the Bidding Commission, in the form of Decree No. 8,538/15, will be subject to disqualification, elimination or loss of condition for signing the contract and to the administrative sanctions that may be provided for in the Regulation of Bids and Contracts, with no prejudice to liability in other spheres;

c) The Bidding Commission will verify, in the effectiveness phase, through diligence (eg: Certificate issued by the Commercial Registry, National Register of Legal Entities (CNPJ) card, articles of association/incorporation and their last amendments, among other documents) the proper qualification of the proponent that has declared itself as a micro or small enterprise.

3.3.1.4. The national proponent must submit along with their price proposal:

a) A statement informing the company's union classification, the predominant economic activity, and the justification for adopting the collective labor instrument on which their proposal is based;

b) A copy of the letter or union registration of the union to which they declare to be affiliated, in accordance with the union classification rules provided in the CLT (Consolidation of Labor Laws) or by judicial decision.

3.3.1.4.1. The Proponet is responsible in cases of errors in the union classification or fraud by using a collective instrument incompatible with the declared union classification or in which the company was not represented by a class entity of their category, which may result in undue advantage during the proposal evaluation phase. These situations subject the contractor to the penalties provided for in the Bid Notice and other regulations governing the bidding process.

3.3.1.4.2. The Proponent is solely responsible for any errors or fraud in the union classification or for any resulting financial burden, whether due to readjustment or by judicial decision. These burdens may include the payment of wage differences and other benefits, or even disruptions in the execution of contracted services resulting from the adoption of an inappropriate collective labor instrument.

3.3.2. The proposal must be submitted in a specific field of the Electronic Portal, in a document that adequately identifies the applicant and written portuguese or english, containing the following documents:

a) Unit Price Worksheet (PPU), according to the model present in Addendum C and instructions contained in item 3.3.2.1 that document;

3.3.2.1. The values to be presented shall observe the following guideline:

3.3.2.1.1. They must be expressed in Brazilian Reais, and in the case of a national proponent or foreign companies authorized to operate in Brazil, and in United States Dollars or Euro, in the case of foreign proponent with no authorization to operate in Brazil, and always in 2 decimal places. The submission of bids in US dollar or Euro currency, by a national proponent or foreign companies authorized to operate in Brazil, in the form of Contract Draft (Addendum A), is subject to the presence and proof during the contract performance, of imported input or any legal exception to the mandatory course of Brazilian Real observed the provisions in item 3.3.7.

3.3.2.1.2. The proponent must fill in the values in the PPU sent according to Addendum C, which will be used for judging the proposals. The proponent must insert the files containing the completed PPU (Addendum C) in the "Header" tab, in the "Notes and Annexes" field. In the “Price” field in the “Items” tab of “Opportunity” on the Electronic Portal, for systemic purposes, we advise you to enter the total value applied for the PPU, avoiding differences of information between the PPU and the Opportunity. These amounts entered in the "Price" field in the "Items" tab of "Opportunity" will not be used for the purpose of judging proposals;

3.3.2.1.3. The proponent must submit a Pricing Statement (DFP), strictly detailing all the elements, including overhead costs, that led to the formation of the unit price of each item of the Unit Price Sheet (PPU), according to the model set forth in Addendum C. The proponent must insert the file containing DFP in the “Header” tab, in the “Notes and Attachments” field, , selecting the “DFP” type.

3.3.2.1.4. The foreign proponent without authorization to operate in Brazil must enter the values in the “Price” field in the “Items” tab of “Opportunity”, considering all taxes and tax benefits in the country of origin, and for classification purposes, where applicable, the amounts provided for in item 4.1.6 shall be added.

3.3.3. All requested information must be submitted electronically via the Electronic Portal, starting from the “Start Date”;

3.3.4. All documents must be attached using the “Header” tab on the “Notes and Annexes” menu.

3.3.5. The “Collaboration Room” is purposed for inquiries, and the bidders are prohibited from sending information therein regarding the proposal as well as documents, except in the cases provisioned in this document or when requested by the Bidding Commission.

3.3.6. Proponent must observe the "Basic Data" of "Opportunity", the dates and the start and end times for submission of proposals ("Start Date" and "End Date").

3.3.7. If the national proponent has submitted its bid in United States Dollars or Euro, it must indicate in the Unit Price Sheet (Addendum C) the obligations to be contracted abroad, informing in the proposal the detailing of these foreign inputs.

3.3.7.1. The total value of the contract to be signed it will obtained considering the foreign currency conversion to Brazilian Real (BRL) based on the commercial exchange rate for sale disclosed by the Central Bank of Brazil on a day before the bid opening date (base date).

3.3.8. The proponent may withdraw or replace his respective proposal until the End Date.

3.3.9. The bid documents attached by the proponent must be opened on the date and time set as "End Date".

3.3.10. The proponent is responsible for checking all the attachments and information that must be part of his proposal.

3.3.11. When sending the proposal, the system immediately displays a message stating that it was sent successfully. The proponent must observe the "status" of its bid which must be "Submitted", in the "Opportunities Panel".

3.3.12. The lack of any document requested in this Notice or the submission of the bid containing amendments, erasures, fine prints, qualifications and interpretations or modifications of any clause in this Notice and its addendums may result in disqualification of the proponent's proposal.

3.3.12.1. All documents included in this Notice are listed in the addendums.

3.3.13. The contracting party may, at its discretion, extend the Start Date and End Date. Those interested in participating in this hiring bidding process must observe any changes in the dates informed in “Opportunity” and in the public area on the Electronic Portal.

3.3.13.1. Any extension does not result in the automatic reopening of the deadline for clarification request provided in the field "Queries on this hiring process". New term may be granted in the specific case at the discretion of the Bidding Commission .

3.3.14. Without prejudice to item 3.3.1 above, the submission of the proposal by the proponent implies a formal declaration of full acceptance of the conditions established in this document and its addendums.

4. JUDGMENT OF THE BIDS

4.1. The Proposals will be ordered according to the judgment criteria defined in this document.

4.1.1. Exclusively for judgment purposes, when there are bids presented in different currencies, all of them shall be converted to Brazilian Real (R$) at the commercial exchange sale rate disclosed by the Central Bank of Brazil on the date of opening of the bids (base date).

4.1.2. Mistakes in calculations must be corrected as follows:

4.1.2.1. If there is disagreement between the unit price and the total price obtained, the unit price must be multiplied by the quantity, the unit price will prevail and the total price will be corrected. In the case of a schedule in which there are items linked to a percentage over the value of another item, the contracting party reserves the right to consider the correct amount resulting from this transaction;

4.1.2.2. If there is a disagreement between the numerical and extensional value contained in the proposal, the value written in words will prevail;

4.1.2.3. If there is a discrepancy between the PPU values and the price informed in Items tab, in Petronect, the values informed in the PPU will prevail;

4.1.3. The necessary adjustments in the values will be made, as a result of IPI, ICMS, ISS, PIS, COFINS, SIMPLES, and CPRB rates incorrectly reported in the bids; however, this correction cannot result in the increase of the final value of the bid.

4.1.4. Regarding the imposition of taxes, the legislation in force at the time of receipt of bids must be considered, regardless of the time of the taxable event, except in cases where different tax rates and tax bases are already established for the moment of the taxable event.

4.1.5. The determination of the best price will be made after any adjustments of values that are necessary, due to the rates of IPI, ICMS, ISS, PIS, COFINS, SIMPLES and CPRB incorrectly informed in the proposals, including the increase in value of the DIFAL-Differential of ICMS rate (if applicable) resulting from the interstate sale, to be collected at the destination by contracting party.

4.1.6. To the prices proposed by foreign proponents without authorization to operate in Brazil, after considering all the variations provided for in Bilateral Agreements or the Brazilian Legislation in force, where applicable, there shall be added tariffs and import fees as follows:

4.2. If the best proposal has not been offered by a micro or small enterprise and there is a proposal submitted by a micro or small enterprise that is equal or even 10% higher than that, shall apply the tie rules as follows:

a) the best rated micro or small enterprise shall be convened, among those classified under the condition provided for in item 4.2 above, to cover the best offer;

b) in the event that the convened micro or small enterprise does not cover the best offer, the remaining micro or small enterprises that may fall under the condition provided for in item 4.2 above, subject to the previous order, will be convened to exercise the same right given at the first call;

c) in the event that all convened micro or small enterprises fail to cover the best tender, the Bidding Commission must maintain the original order and continue the bidding process;

d) in the event that, under the above procedure, a micro or small enterprise covers the best bid, the Bidding Commission will reorder the proponents, placing it at first and continuing the bid.

4.2.1. In the event that micro and small enterprises fall under the situation described in item 4.2have presented equivalent values, the Bidding Commission must draw lots among them to identify the order of summons.

4.2.2. The procedure provided for in item 4.2, will be promoted by the Bidding Commission, subject to the previous ordering, whenever the proponent of the best bid is disqualified, disabled or excluded from this bidding process, except when the next proponent in the previous ordering is a micro or small enterprise that is entitled to the differential treatment provided for in LC 123/06.

4.2.3. After observing the procedure described in item 4.2 above, if no convened company has exercised the right to cover the best offer or the condition provided for in item 4.2 above, and if absolute equality is identified between two or more bids, the Bidding Commission will seek to tie the bids in the form of art. 55 of Law 13,303/2016.

5. VERIFICATION OF EFFECTIVENESS OF THE PROPOSAL AND NEGOTIATION

5.1. The most advantageous proposal will be analyzed, according to the judgment criterion. Should this proposal be disqualified, the Bidding Commission may verify the effectivity of the other proposals, in due order, disqualifying the one that:

a) Has irremediable defects;

b) Does not comply with the technical specifications set forth in this Notice and addendums thereto;

c) Present unaffordable prices, as provided for in item 5.2 of this Notice, and have not demonstrated their feasibility, after due diligence of the Bidding Commission;

d) Presents prices deemed to be excessive;

e) Whose global value, after negotiation, is higher than the reference contracting budget prepared by Petrobras;

f) Does not comply with the requirements of this Notice and addendums thereto, unless it is possible to comply therewith before the award of the contract and without prejudice to the same treatment among the proponents.

g) The proponent does not meet the Supplier Performance Concept as per item 5.6.

h) Possess articles of association/incorporation a purpose or goal that is incompatible with this hiring process and can be used for that a Certificate issued by the Board of Trade, National Register of Legal Entities (CNPJ) card, articles of association/incorporation and last amendment or any other document that serves to fulfill this purpose.

5.1.1. The Bidding Commission, even before finalizing the effectiveness verification with the best ranked bidder, may carry out diligence with the other bidders, observing the classification order, to enhance the effectiveness of the bidding process.

5.1.2. Being identified by the Bidding Commission if the applicant is in one of the situations described below, his proposal will be disqualified:

a) Has undergone sanction in the CEIS - Registry of Ineligible and Suspended Companies (Transparency Portal of the Federal Comptroller General), whose effects are extensible to Petrobras;

b) Is included in any of the impediment situations provided for in Law 13.303/16;

c) Has been blocked provisionally from the Petrobras' Supplier Registry, by means of a precautionary measure.

d) Is prohibited from taking part in Bidding of similar scope, due to public notice measure provisioned in art. 207 of RLCP.

e) Is listed in the Register of Employers who have subjected workers to conditions similar to slavery (Slave Labor ¿Dirty List¿ ¿ Ministry of Labor and Employment).

5.2. An indication of unenforceability shall be considered when the overall value of the proposal is less than 70% of the lower bid of the following values:

a) the arithmetic average of the bid amounts higher than 50% of the contracting referential budget amount elaborated by Petrobras; or

b) the estimate of the contracting referential budget amount elaborated by Petrobras.

5.2.1. If there is any indication that the bid is unenforceable, due diligence shall be taken to ensure that the proponent making the bid can prove enforceability thereof.

5.2.2. If any doubts remain as to the feasibility of the proposal, even if it does not fit the situation provided for in item 5.2, diligence may be taken to prove its feasibility.

Note: If requested by Petrobras, the bidder must submit Addendum F - Feasibility Questionnaire duly filled out.

5.2.3. In order to prove the feasibility of his proposal, the proponent must present justifications and documents that prove the feasibility and compatibility of the amounts offered with the costs and expenses necessary for the full execution of the contractual object, and the Bidding Commission may perform the analysis of the DFP presented by the proponent, with confidential treatment being guaranteed to DFPs presented.

5.2.4. Once the commercial analysis of the proposal has been completed, the Bidding Commission may commence the initial steps of the negotiation phase and request the qualification documents, even if the proposal effectiveness verification phase remains in progress with respect to the other aspects.

5.2.4.1. The commencement of the negotiation and qualification phases does not constitute acceptance of the proposal terms; therefore, if the other conditions set forth in the Notice are not satisfied, the proposal may be disqualified.

5.3. The Bidding Commission will negotiate most advantageous conditions with the proponent who offered the best bid.

5.4. The Bidding Commission may, when all the proposal exceed the reference budget, shall simultaneously consult the bidders on their interest to reach the contracting process target value. The negotiation with those interested will follow the classification order.

5.5. The subsequent proponent will be called, subject to the previous ordering, and the provisions relating to preference for micro and small enterprises that qualify for the differentiated treatment provided for in LC 123/06, when the previous proponent is disqualified or disabled in the form of the item 6.3.

5.6. Supplier Performance Concept

5.6.1. The proponent will be considered approved under the Supplier Performance Concept requirement if they have a rating equal to or greater than 3 stars or if they do not have an evaluated Performance Concept. For evaluation purposes, the Supplier Performance Concept rating consulted during the effectiveness verification stage will be considered.

Note: To check the Supplier Performance Concept rating, the proponent can access the Collaboration Panel in the restricted area of Petronect. For more detailed guidance on the Performance Concept or how to access the Collaboration Panel, copy and paste the addresses below into an internet browser of your choice: https://canalfornecedor.petrobras.com.br/en/o-funcionamento-de-um-contrato/avaliacao-de-desempenho-de-fornecedores.

6. QUALIFICATION

6.1. As soon as the negotiation stage referred to in the item has started 5.3 of this notice or within the scope of the scenario described in item 5.2.4, the Bidding Commission may call the proponent for the evaluation of the qualification criteria provided for in the Addendum D. For criteria that the proponent has not proven to meet in the Supplier Registry or whose registration is out of date, evaluation questionnaires will be opened, through which the proponent must submit the requested documentation for the respective criterion.

6.1.1. The qualification phase shall be concluded only after completion of the proposal effectiveness verification and negotiation phases. Obtaining a Supplier Registration Certificate (CRC) during the bidding process shall not affect the analysis of the proposal¿s effectiveness.

6.1.2. The deadline for completing the questionnaires will be 2 business days, and may be extended for up to an equal period at the discretion of Petrobras.

6.1.3. Once the period has been established, the questionnaires shall be automatically closed and sent to Petrobras for analysis.

6.1.4. The Bidding Commission may perform due diligence to clarify the content or eliminate inconsistencies or defects found in the qualification documents, with a period of 5 working days being defined for the proponent to correct the inconsistencies or defects found.

6.1.5. The Bidding Commission may grant a new deadline for the necessary corrections, if the defects or inconsistencies have not been adequately corrected.

6.2. Petrobras shall analyze the documentation presented, verifying compliance with the requirements of this Notice and its addendums. For the purpose of judging the qualification, other websites may be consulted, in particular official websites that issue such licenses and certificates, as well as the information available in Petrobras' Supplier Register and internal systems.

6.3. If the proponent does not meet the qualification requirements, the Bidding Commission will call the subsequent proponent for analysis as to the stages of effectiveness of the proposal and qualification, respecting the previous ordering and the provisions relating to preference for micro and small enterprises.

6.4. If the proponent meets the requirements for qualification, it will be declared qualified by the Bidding Commission.

7. APPEALS AND CLOSING OF THE BIDDING PROCESS

7.1. After the announcement of the bidding result by the Bidding Commission will be opened a deadline for bidders to express, within 1 business day, their intention to appeal, under penalty of forfeiting of this right.

7.1.1. Once the deadline for expressing the intention to appeal has expired and If there is a response from at least one bidder, a period of 5 working days will be granted, counting from the date of publication of the result, for the proponent who expressed such intention to present their arguments.

7.2. Appeals must be filed with justification, and this one should be addressed to Manager of Procurement for Surface Systems (Superior Authority of this event), through the Bidding Commission, through the "Collaboration Room".

7.2.1. The appeals must be clearly written, in Portuguese, dated and signed by the Legal Representatives, or Attorneys with specific powers.

7.2.2. The submission of an appeal without following the form and deadline established in the previous items will result in its dismissal, and the Bidding Commission will be authorized to award the object to the bidder declared the winner.

7.2.3. The appeal(s) received shall be disclosed through the "Collaboration Room", by the Bidding Commission opening a period of opening a period of 1 working day, counted from the date of disclosure, for the bidders to express their intention to submit objections to the appeal(s) filed, under penalty of forfeiting this right.
